

I believe that the proposed changes, that I understand relax the ownership restrictions on broadcast media, are a mistake. Anything that makes it easier for large conglomerates to further consolidate ownership of media outlets will reduce diversity, as well as be economically unsound.